You're right about the sitting together! We have a choir once a month at our all age service, and we do try the other things too. The frustrating thing is that when we do introduce a new hymn (and we try to make sure that they're always good ones) and use it a few times, it then becomes a familiar hymn and everyone likes it.

The more one explores history, the more you can see how it does not line up with the ahistorical, wild stories that conspiracy theorists prefer to tell. "History," as Former National Security Adviser Zbigniew Brzezinski once put it, "is much more the product of chaos than of conspiracy," with competing groups and divisions within groups often at odds with one another and unpredictable ...
