Charlotte Samuels thought she'd be stuck waiting tables at Marlow's until all her debts are paid off-in about ten thousand years or so. She definitely didn't expect a marriage proposal from the arrogant Brandon Maxfield who was blackmailed by his father to make her his wife if he didn't want his least favorite cousin to run Maxfield Industries.

The Mischievous Mrs. Maxfield is so full of emotion that its hard not to connect to the characters, especially Charlotte. It's inspiring how she can still stand tall with a smile on her face after all she's been through, and how she can help those who has done nothing but try to destroy her.
