The preacher is the golden pipe through which the divine oil flows. The pipe must not only be golden, but open and flawless, that oil may have a full, unhindered, unwasted flow. The man makes the preacher. God must make the man. The messenger is, if possible, more than the message. The preacher is more than the sermon. The preacher makes the sermon.

African-American women preachers, Cannon’s ethical and moral assertions are, no doubt, assumed as a part of the foundational fabric of daily life. For women preachers who have been profoundly influenced by thinking that idealizes personal freedom as the source of human action and choice, Cannon’s words provide a crucial challenge.
